LOCATION:

The Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum is located at 300 N Houston Street, Dallas 75202, in the historic West End District.

PARKING AND SECURITY:

Complimentary self-parking will be available in the Museum's Garage, located directly across the street from the Museum. Please take a ticket upon entry for validation at check-in.

All guests will go through an airport-style security screening upon entering the Museum. Large bags and weapons are not allowed. View a full list of prohibited items here.

VISITOR GUIDELINES:

The Museum has taken precautions and implemented protocols that we believe to be reasonable to prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus.

Following CDC recommendations, the Dallas Holocaust and Human Rights Museum strongly encourages all Museum guests to wear face masks for the duration of their visit. Unvaccinated guests over the age of 2 must wear face masks for the duration of their visit. We ask that all guests social distance at least six feet apart while inside the Museum.

SANITARY AND CLEANING MEASURES

- There are numerous plexiglass "shields", hand sanitizer stations, and bleach wipes available throughout the Museum.
- We have increased cleaning of high-touch areas.
- We have modified Wings, Galleries, and Theaters to ensure that proper social distancing can be observed.
- We have implemented deep cleanings after each film showing.
- We have placed directional signage throughout the Museum.
- We have numerous staff members on hand to answer your questions and make your visit safe and comfortable.

WAIVER: By entering Museum premises, you agree to do so at your own risk and waive any claim of responsibility against the Museum in the event that such virus is contracted.

QUESTIONS: Please call Elizabeth Adams at 469-399-5233 or email at eadams@dhhrm.org.
